

GET THE OFFER: FINDING WORK WITH A POLICE RECORD

Friday October 13, 2017
10:30 a.m. - 3 p.m.
Skills for Change
791 St. Clair Ave. W.

Learn strategies for employment success and how to make a great first impression, including:

- how and when to disclose details of a police record to employers
- interview techniques to reframe your story in a positive manner
- how and when to apply for a record suspension (formerly a pardon)
- skills that employers value most in an ideal candidate and
- receive hands on support with resume and job fair preparation

Online event registration with Eventbrite

For more information contact Anita Ganhadeiro at 416-392-4430

 facebook.com/torontoess

 @torontoess
#workoneTO

Connect with us!

www.skillsforchange.org

St. Stephen's
Community House

 Skills for Change
Building Welcoming and Equitable Communities

EMPLOYMENT
ONTARIO